Pathways to Leadership to Foster Diversity and Inclusion in the Bar

By The Mississippi Bar's Diversity Committee

Introduction

As part of its current Strategic Plan, The Mississippi Bar adopted the goal of fostering diversity and inclusion among members of the Bar community. The Bar has worked to achieve this goal through the formation of a Diversity Committee, the adoption of a Diversity Statement, a focus on strengthening relationships with local and affinity Bars, and intentional efforts to create pathways for involvement focused on diversity and inclusion.

The Mississippi Bar has adopted the following Diversity Statement:

The Mississippi Bar is committed to fostering diversity in the legal profession. We recognize that a diverse group of talented legal professionals is critically important to the success of every law firm, corporate or government law department, law school, public service organization and every other organization that includes attorneys. The myriad of backgrounds within our membership reflects the diversity of our community, and we value the unique viewpoints of all members. We endeavor to be an environment in which no member will be advantaged or disadvantaged because of race, color, gender, national origin, religion, age, disability, familial status or any other real or perceived differences. This emphasis on diversity allows us to offer varied perspectives, interests, and experiences to both the practice of law and the administration of justice. We continue to engage in an intentional effort to advance diversity and inclusion within our leadership, membership, programmatic agenda and community endeavors. We are confident that these efforts will strengthen the effectiveness of the programs and services offered by the Mississippi Bar and will allow all members to participate equally and fully in our profession.

To meet the Bar's diversity and inclusion efforts, the Pathways to Leadership to Foster Diversity and Inclusion in The Mississippi Bar serves to increase diverse participation and leadership in the Bar by providing to lawyers information about the various aspects of the Bar and the means by which lawyers can become involved.

Board of Directors Members

Board members are nominated by the Nominations, Elections, & Awards Committee chaired by a young lawyer. The Directors' slate consists of two people for 16 seats with alternating elections each year. Lawyers who have been active in committees and projects are considered for these positions. The Board also consists of the Presidents of the 12 YLD local affiliates (Delta Young Lawyers, Golden Triangle Young Lawyers, Harrison County Young Lawyers, Hattiesburg Area Young Lawyers, Jackson County Young Lawyers, Jackson Young Lawyers, Jones County Young Lawyers, Lauderdale County Young Lawyers, Lee County Young Lawyers, Northwest Mississippi Young Lawyers, Oxford Area Young Lawyers and Warren County Young Lawyers). ### Officers

There are four officers of the YLD: President, President-Elect, Secretary, and Immediate Past President. The President-Elect is nominated each year from three rotating districts: Northern, Central, and Southern. The criteria for nomination for President shall be service for no less than two years in the following capacities: as a Committee Chair of a statewide Committee of the Division; or, combined service of two years, one year at least in two of the following positions: as a Local Affiliate President, Committee Chair of a statewide Committee, Director of The Mississippi Bar YLD, or Secretary of The Mississippi Bar YLD, or, service on The Mississippi Bar YLD Board of Directors for two years.

The criteria for nomination for the Secretary position shall be service for no less than one year of the following offices: Local Affiliate President, Committee Chair of a Statewide Committee, or Director of

The Mississippi Bar YLD; or, service for no less than two years as a member of any Statewide Committee. The Secretary position can be from any location throughout the state. The officers have specific duties specified in the YLD Board Manual.

Projects

Community service projects include judging regional and statewide high school mock trial competitions, speaking to classrooms during the Lawyer in Every Classroom program, volunteering for pro bono opportunities supported by the YLD, and volunteering for other projects with a local bar association. All you have to do is volunteer. Information about these opportunities is distributed via the weekly Bar Briefs email and through the YLD's social media accounts.

Bar

Participation in the YLD's committees make for a seamless transition into the Bar's committees and further helps to achieve continuity in program development and leadership as colleagues make the transition together. There are several Bar committees in which to become involved.

Bar Committees

As in most volunteer organizations, much of the work is done through the committee process. The Mississippi Bar is no exception. The number of Bar committees varies from year to year depending on the work of the Bar. Committees can only be created by the Board of Commissioners. Generally, committee appointments are made by the President. Emails can be sent directly to the Executive Director or the Bar President-Elect to be considered for one of these appointments. Their email addresses can be located through the Bar's online Lawyer Directory. Additionally, Committee openings may be advertised in the weekly Bar Briefs email. The Bar's Bylaws provide for both Standing and Ad Hoc Committees. Standing committees have staggered terms meaning only a few openings are available each year. Ad Hoc committees are all one-year terms, and members are appointed each year.

For FY 2023-2024, there are 18 committees. The current Committees of the Bar include:

Access to Justice	Bench-Bar Liaison	Budget and Finance
Clients' Security Fund	Diversity	Ethics
Fee Dispute Resolution	Health Insurance Benefit Study	Law Practice Management &amp; Technology

Resolutions	Summer School for Lawyers	Unauthorized Practice of Law

Most committees begin the year of work during Committee Week held in August of each year. After those initial meetings, committees accomplish their work by meetings conducted in person at the Bar center or remotely through email, videoconferences, and conference calls.

Committee Chairs

The President of the Bar appoints committee chairs and co-chairs, and they serve for one year. Generally, committee chairs are selected from current members of committees. The gender and racial makeup of the members of the Bar's Committees is as follows.

Members of the Committees of the Mississippi Bar
Gender	Chairs	Members
Female	61%	46%
Male	39%	54%

Native American	0%	<1%
Caucasian	78%	79%

Board of Commissioners

The Board of Commissioners is the governing body of the Bar. It is composed of the officers of the Bar and representatives from Mississippi's 23 circuit court districts, as well as a Minority-at-Large representative. Commissioners are nominated for a three-year term by a local nominating committee from within the circuit court districts. They are elected by lawyers in their respective districts. The Minority-at-Large representative is elected by African American lawyers statewide. The Bar's only role in the selection of commissioners is to conduct the election and to ensure that no conflict of interest exists for nominees that would preclude them from serving.

Bar President

The office of President of The Mississippi Bar is an elected position. Two candidates are nominated each year to run for President, with three rotating districts of the state. They are elected by a ballot of all members of the Bar.

Bar Programs

There are many opportunities for lawyers to serve without being on a committee or the Board. Each year hundreds of volunteers are needed for programs like the Young Lawyers Division's annual Mock Trial Competition and the Lawyer in Every Classroom at both Mississippi law schools. All you have to do is to volunteer throughout the year for the Bar's membership and community programs.

Sections

There are 18 substantive law sections that are open to all Members. Membership dues are $15 per section. You can indicate the Section(s) you want to join on the Bar's enrollment form distributed in the Fall or by emailing the Bar's Programs and Events Coordinator anytime during the year.
